This information will automatically be passed to the next CATG meeting when the Principal Highways Engineer will discuss the options going forward. The Chmn and Clerk will attend. At the site meeting Mr Andy Cole, Wilts Highways, agreed that the junction of Teapot St and High St would benefit from new white lines and there may be additional road warning signs which can be painted on the road. Other options to be considered are: Speed indicator devices, village gates and a 20mph speed limit, signs depicting children and elderly folk. Cllr AC advised that there are overhanging hedges along Fore St/High St which are impeding visibility. The PC has requested that residents cut back their hedges and will follow this up with a letter. Discussion followed concerning the problem of HGVs and farm vehicles manoeuvring their way through the village and turning at the East Farm Cottages up Dinton Rd. The verge on the corner is regularly damaged and the occupants of the house discussed their concerns with the Chmn. Wilts Highways may have some suggestions and further white lining might be a possibility.	Chmn
